Christopher P. Hogan

Christopher P. Hogan, 62, of Norristown, PA passed away peacefully Saturday, April 5, 2025 surrounded by family and friends.

He was born in Philadelphia, Pa on August 7, 1962, the son of the late Paul and the late Jacqueline (Page) Hogan.

Christopher has been living in Norristown for over 20 years, formerly of Philadelphia. Chris was a loving husband and father who just enjoyed a simple life with his wife and son. Chris had a heart of gold and would do anything to help someone in need. Before he became ill he used to enjoy hiking with his wife out in Evansburg State Park. Chris was a die hard 4 for 4 Philly sports guy who enjoyed going to games with his wife and son. He loved the show Mike and Molly saying it reminded him of his marriage. He enjoyed cooking and his Family Friday date nights at Applebee's.

He was working as a Salesman with William Betz Plumbing Supply for close to 10 years and he loved it there. He loved the owner Rudy and his boss Doug and all of his coworkers, to him they were his family, and we'll, his customers he couldn't say enough good things about them and would always come home with a good, funny story about the guys. He wanted people to smile, and he always took pride in serving them.

Poetically, Chris was the first person to hold his son Alexander and it was his son who snuggled him and held him till his final breathe. He always said Alex was special and believed he'd go on to do something great, maybe this will be his son's great story. Chris will be deeply missed and will always be loved and remembered by his wife, son, friends and all that knew him. May he be at peace and in no pain.

He was the husband of Lisa (Wilkerson) Hogan.

Survivors include Wife Lisa Hogan of Norristown, Son Alexander Hogan of Norristown, Brother Seth Hogan of Hawaii, and his Step Mother Trudy Rubin of Philadelphia.
